FOREWORD

It is often difficult in explaining the activities, feelings, and thoughts of man to think of a manner of communication which exemplifies correctly these facets of history. In many cases, in an attempt to find the most accurate means of explanation, we hit upon the old adage, "A picture is worth a thousand words." Perhaps it may be trite, but nevertheless the logic behind the statement is sound.

For this reason, our yearbook is constructed basically of pictures of college life, not verbal but visual. We attempt in this manner to best qualify activities and life in NWMSC. As all things which are products of man, the TOWER is far from perfect. But we are constantly striving for perfection as are all men.

Thus, we present this the 1968 TOWER to you, not as a complete comprehensive entity, but as a step in a growing, changing, evolutionary process.

May it provide a source of enjoyment and pleasant memories of your college life for many years to come.

Signed,

Staff of the 1968 TOWER

Dedication

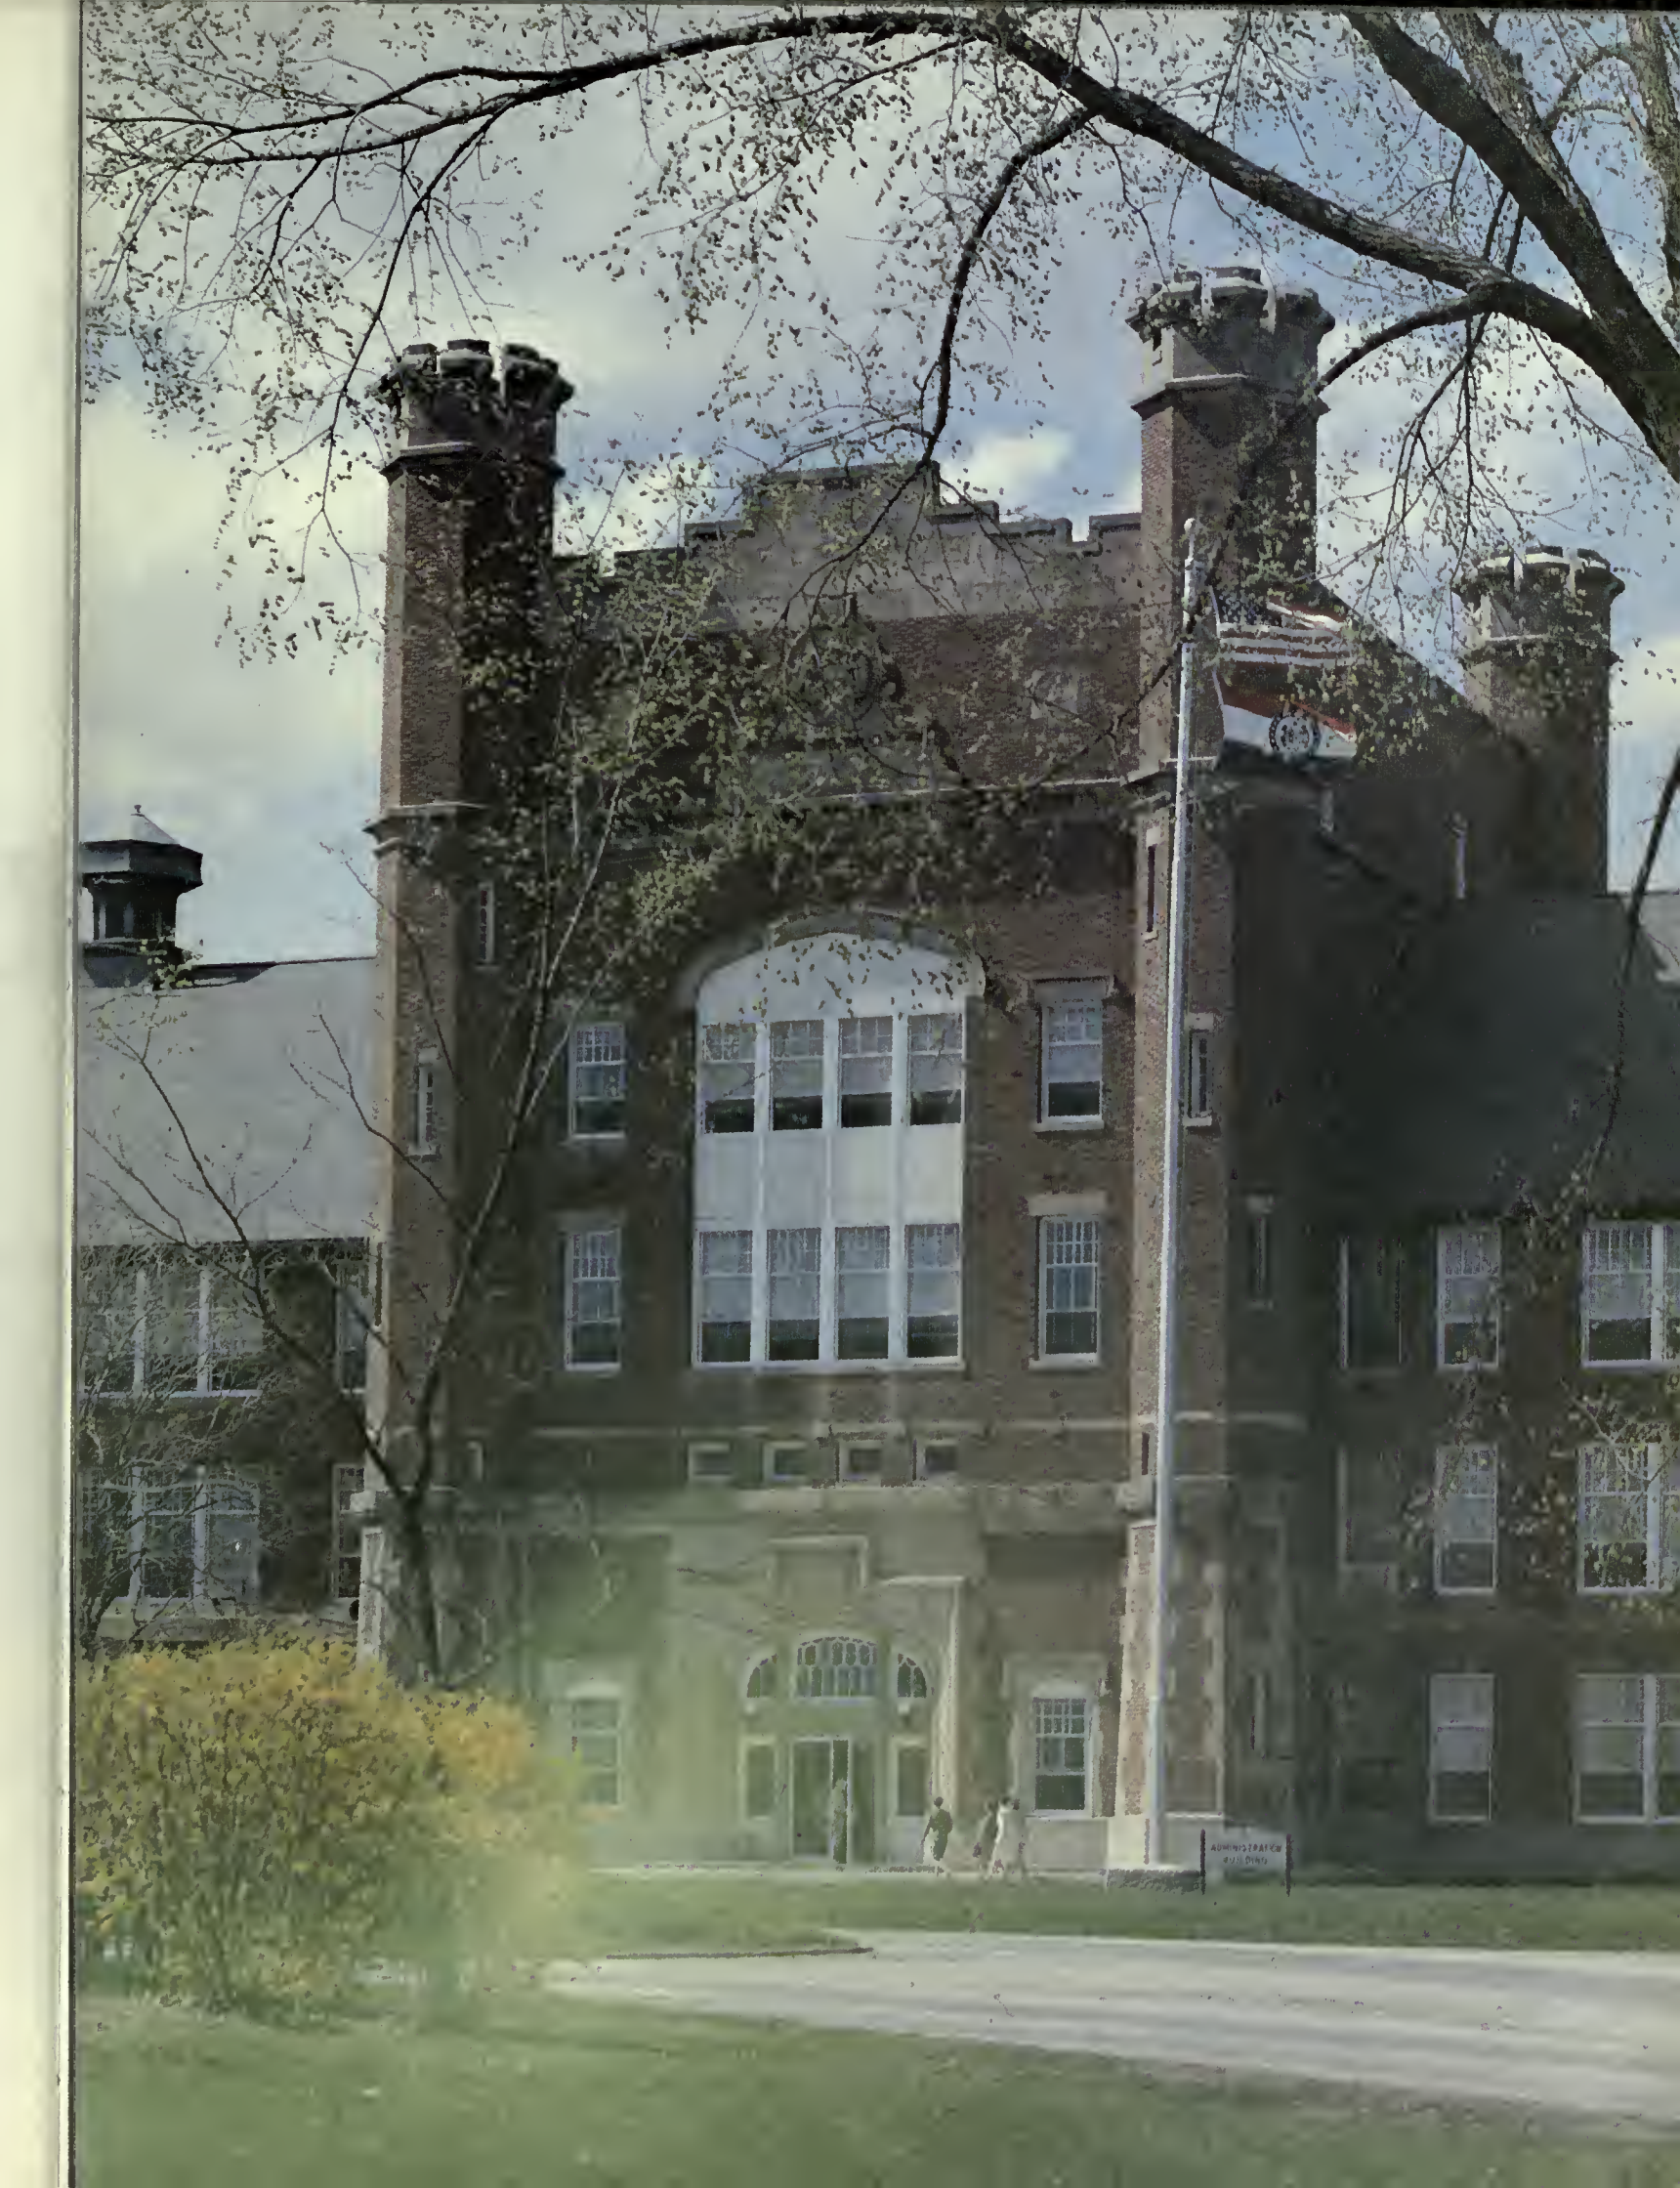

Life is in a constant state of flux, continually changing, renewing, revitalizing. Without change, there can be no progress or growth or betterment. Thus, change is the essence of life, the spark which motivates all within its sphere.

So, to this institution which is symbolic of change and growth, we dedicate this, the 1968 Tower. For NWMSC more than, possibly, any other part of our existence is the primary motivational and directional force determining our lives. To this ever-changing, ever-progressing institution, we voice our debt of gratitude.

Throughout the sixties, NWMSC has changed and grown, showing not only a growth in size but in curriculum and outlook as well. Nor has the growth been arrested—a new industrial arts complex, another addition to the library, new dorms are even now in the planning stage. Ever striving to improve itself, to provide better living and learning conditions, NWMSC stands in the forefront as a worthy recipient of our esteem.

As concrete proof of this development, enrollment figures and faculty number for fall 1960 and fall 1967 are as follows:

	1960	1967
Faculty	95	204
Student Enrollment
(including graduate and Saturday classes.)	1971	4194

Miss Beverly Beeks
Tower Office
J. W. Jones Union Building

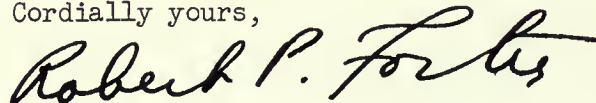

Dear Beverly:

I appreciate very much your letter of March 4, and I am pleased to learn of the theme of the 1968 Tower. I look forward to receiving my copy of this edition.

I find the theme of the Tower most interesting, and I think the fact that you have dedicated the Tower to the "College in Change" is an excellent idea. Certainly we are experiencing a change, and with what the Legislature has done the past week will assure this institution of proper facilities for several years. Certainly this has been a year of change, and with the beginning of construction on the new Industrial Education and Technology Building, the completion of the Science Building, the new agriculture facilities, and the completion of plans for remodeling and renovation of the Administration Building, we will see much change on this campus.

I appreciate all the time, effort, and hard work that you and your staff have put in to make this 1968 Tower possible. Please convey to all members of your staff my sincere appreciation for their dedication.

Cordially yours,

Robert P. Foster

NORTHWEST MISSOURI STATE COLLEGE

MARYVILLE, MISSOURI

J. W. Jones, President
Emeritus

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT
EMERITUS

March 7, 1968

Miss Beverly Beeks,
Tower Office.

Dear Miss Beeks:

Your invitation to comment on the general theme of your 1968 Tower is gratefully acknowledged. You are to be congratulated on such a comprehensive subject as Metamorphosis as it applies to the college.

One of the tribes in Kenya, the Basuto, has a proverb which runs as follows

"If man does away with his traditional way of living and throws away his good customs, he had better first make certain that he has something of value to replace them."

As I have watched the college expand over the years I am certain that there has been an awareness of the teaching of this proverb. That is as it should be. Your Tower reflects this progress.

Oliver Wendell Holmes, one of our early American poets, wrote these lines in The Chambered Nautilus :

"Build me more stately mansions, O my soul,
As the swift seasons roll ...
... Till thou at length art free..."

The physical expansion on the campus has always had one function of college life as its justification: The improvement of the environment in which faculty teach and students learn so that we shall come to a better realization of the statement over the door of the Administration Building-

"And the truth shall make you free".

Surely we shall find in the 1968 Tower evidence that in the lives of the students and the personnel of the college we are living in keeping with this ideal from the college oath -

"We shall transmit this College to those who come after us, greater, better, and more beautiful."

Sincerely yours

J. W. Jones
President-emeritus

LUTHER G. BELCHER, JR., Business manager of NWMSC, is secretary of the Board of Regents.

*The Many Sides Of
Our President*

In all of life there must be a reason why; a purpose for doing, acting, or living as we do; a motivating force throughout existence. This force appears in many guises during a person's life, as physical wants and needs in infancy, curiosity and parental pressure in childhood, and endocrinal balances and counterbalances in adolescence.

In college, this motivating force assumes yet another form, that of the instructor.

To effect the completion of any process, there must first be present the raw resources with which to work.

In the educational system those resources are, of course, the students; perhaps not so raw, but still material to be molded and pressed into a different and hopefully augmented and improved form.

In any process, besides material, there must be a manner of production, a means of changing the material to create something new.

In education, this process may vary from teacher to teacher, institution to institution, but all have one goal, that of the creation of a socially-assimilated individual.

The Sigma Phi Dolphins presented their swim show in the spring after many months of preparation. Activities began in the fall with tryouts, followed by perfecting stunts and planning and organizing routines.

"The Trip" was selected as the title of the swim show. The routines represented various moods and emotions experienced during a trip.

Officers for the year were Gayle Bradfield, president; Sharon Miller and Sue Owen, vice-presidents; Vicki Baker, secretary-treasurer; Pat Verfurth, historian; and Kay Revis, publicity.

Union Board Strives

John Price, President of the Union Board Program Council.

In an attempt to create better communication between the Program Council and the student body, such innovations as a suggestion box placed outside the Union Board office to receive all pertinent comments and suggestions from interested students were instituted. The council has created several new activities over the past few years including Room at the Top, Topics of Our Times, Sunday night cultural movies, and a controversial speaker series.

An Evening's Frost

Will Geer brings to life the works of a great American poet.

"Reluctance"

Robert Frost

*Out through the fields and woods
And over the walls I have wended;
I have climbed the hills of view
And looked at the world and decended;
I have come by the highway home,
And lo, it is ended.*

*The leaves are all dead on the ground,
Save those that the oak is keeping
To ravel them one by one
And let them go scraping and creeping
Out over the crusted snow
When others are sleeping.*

*And the dead leaves lie huddled and still,
No longer blown hither and thither,
The last lone aster is gone;
The flowers of witch-hazel wither;
The heart is still aching to seek,
But the feet question "Whither?"*

*Ah, when to the heart of man
Was it even less than a treason
To go with the drift of things,
To yield with a grace to reason,
And bow and accept the end,
Of a love or a season?*

Guided by the revised Constitution, the Student Senate functioned as the student governing body, representing and informing the students of Northwest Missouri State College. A greater representation of campus groups by more senators was a major change of the new Constitution. Under the leadership of President Tom Frank, the Senate searched to discover areas of needed improvement and remedy those within its power.

At regular meetings on Thursday nights, campus activities were announced, planned and reviewed. A representative from the MISSOURIAN attended the meetings and reported the minutes of the meetings in the school newspaper for the purpose of informing the entire student body.

In its widened area of citizenship, the Senate took charge of the philanthropic project of soliciting the students on campus for United Fund both last year and again this year.

Other activities of the Senate included conducting of campus elections and interpretation of the laws and rules of the Student Association, especially by means of additional sub-groups such as the Student-Faculty Disciplinary Board, Traffic Court, Student Court, and others.

As a means of securing better relations and understanding between the students and the citizens of Maryville, the Senate worked with the City Council and city merchants in several events referred to as "Night on the Town" and "Night on the Campus."

Last spring the Associated Women Students sent a delegation of three officers to the Intercollegiate Associated Women Students National Convention at the University of West Virginia in Morgantown. From this convention the delegation gleaned many new ideas which were put into effect this year.

Additional ideas were learned from delegates who attended the Bi-State Convention at the University of Missouri and the Regional Three Convention at SMU in Dallas, Texas.

One new feature added to the AWS activities this year was a Bridal Show held in the spring. It featured new and old bridal fashions; displays of china, silver, and crystal; and guest speakers on diamond selection and honeymoon travel.

This year marked the beginning of an installation program with a semi-formal banquet held for the old and new officers and the general council. Besides installing new officers, the retiring executive board named an AWS Outstanding Woman of the Year who was chosen on her contributions to the organization. The executive council added an AWS representative to the student senate. A student wives' representative was a new addition to the general council.

AWS and Embers jointly gave two NWMSC coeds scholarships. One was presented to a sophomore woman and one to a junior woman.

NWMSC is initiating a Senior Key System. This privilege, giving all senior women with a 2.0 grade point the permission to check out a key to their residence hall, was planned and activated by AWS.

In the fall all fathers and their sons were honored at the Dad's Day football game. The annual Father of the Year was chosen. In the spring all mothers were invited to spend the weekend with their daughters in the residence halls. Many activities were planned for them and a Mother of the Year award presented.

Traditional activities of the AWS include construction of the Homecoming Queen's Float, the Christmas Tea, monthly Penny Nights, AWS Style Show, Big Sister-Little Sister Program, Coke Party, selling campus activities calendars, various lectures, and revision of the rule book for women's residence hall living.

AWS Executive Counsel

Seniors Honored

Traditional Wise Men bring gifts to the nativity scene.

As is traditional at Christmas time, Roberta Hall once again honored the seniors of NWMSC with its annual presentation of the Hanging of the Greens. Through this ceremony, not only is the original nativity story told, but customs and habits of other countries are shown as well. The history of the Christmas spirit throughout the centuries is given with the culmination coming as the "Spirit of Christmas" is chosen and announced.

A graceful minuet depicts Christmas celebrations of early America.

At the height of the Christmas celebration in the Middle Ages, came the enjoyment of the roast pig.

Alpha Psi Presents 'Male Animal'

Alpha Psi Omega, national honorary dramatic fraternity, presented the rollicking comedy by Thurber and Nugent, "The Male Animal." It was presented May 3, 4, 5, and 6 as the Cast's 10th annual scholarship production.

Officers for the 1967-68 school year were Jerry Eisenhour, treasurer; Anne Nielsen, secretary; Harold Webb, vice-president; and Richard Heinz, president.

Dr. Ralph Fulsom is the Cast's sponsor and Dr. Frank Grube is an honorary member.

Forensics and Pi Kappa Delta

Forensics is a club of novice speakers and is considered a stepping stone into Pi Kappa Delta, national honorary forensics fraternity.

Members of Pi Kappa Delta have confidence and experience in debating, discussion techniques, extemporaneous speaking, after dinner speaker, oral interpretation, oratory, and radio and television.

As an entire group, Pi Kappa Delta participated in the bi-providence tournament held in Excelsior Springs.

Ordinarily a debator, Terry Lutz branches out into drama for Thurber Cornivol.

Drama Club Works Behind Scenes

Students enrolled in Drama Club, academically called Problems in Play Production, learn the rudiments of theatre work. This can become rather hectic at times, with try-outs, rehearsals, and set construction, but the experience can be rewarding. All work is done under the supervision of Dr. Ralph Fulsom, Mr. Richard Weaver, and Mr. Robert West.

Drama Club is generally a stepping stone to membership in Alpha Psi Omega.

"Now I know what that next line is. . ." Carolyn Farber seems worried about her part in Thurber Carnival.

Drama Aids UNICEF

On the night of October 29 monsters roamed the campus and streets of Maryville. The monsters were students enrolled in a stage make-up course who converted themselves into monsters to gain valuable experience in make-up materials.

The gruesome task began at 9 a.m. and at 6 p.m., the monsters went to the Methodist Church to entertain children trick or treating for UNICEF. This undertaking was a first on Northwest Missouri State College and is possibly a first in the nation. The students received special commendation from the UNICEF headquarters for their project.

To make a monster, start with a handful of foam rubber . . .

Student Directors Present

What can the actors do when they have a stage, an audience, and a cast, but no script? Scott Hodgins, Rollie Staldman, Carole Sinclair and Linda Brinton find out in "Impromptu".

There is "No Exit" from hell, as Marsha Hensleigh, Cheryl Reineke, and Larry Carter realize. Rex Mowrey smiles at their fear.

Mary Beth McKinney and Richard Heinz begin to see the trials of married life in "Here We Are".

One-Act Plays

Mag Price and Marji Hitchcock converse pleasantly as Terry Lutz and Lyndelle Sharp, as their inner selves, show their real feelings.

Jerry Eisenhour charges about in a rage at his former wife, Linda Hornoday, who deserted him for a typewriter, in "Twelve Pound Look".

In "Aria Da Capo", Peirot, Orange Miller, and Columbine, Mary Jo Jansen, act out their comic play-life as the mask of tragedy, Tom LaVille, looks on.

Ruth Martin and Gail Bullis relive their youth in this scene from "Release".

'Dark of the Moon'

"Everybody knows the truth about Barbara Allen."
And if they don't know, Edna Summey (Margaret Price) will tell them as she tells Barbara herself (Cheryl Reineke).

"I ain't a-goin' 'til hit time ler bed!" Pa Allen (Jerry Eisenhower) tells Ma (Anne Nielsen).

"... ain't it hard to love one who never did love you..."
sing Mike Glennon, John Hoffman, Harold Webb, and Loring Miller.

Barbara and John (Tom LaVelle)
discuss the birth of their child.

A witch-boy from the mountain came,
A-pinin' to be human,
Fer he had seen the fairest gal...
A gal named Barbara Allen.

O Conjur Man, O Conjur Man,
Please do this thing I'm wantin'
Please change me to a human man,
Fer Barbara I'd be courtin'.

Now, Barbara had a red, red dress
And one she had of blue,
And many men did Barbara love
But never was she true.

Oh, you can be a man, a man,
If Barbara will not grieve you,
If she be faithful fer a year,
Yer eagle, he will leave you.

O, Barbara, will you marry me,
And will you leave me never,
Oh, yes, my love, I'll marry you,
And live with you forever.

Recreates Mountain Legend

"Humans never know each other," the dark witch (Jennifer Boeh) and fair witch (Marcia Hensleigh) try to tell John.

Preacher Haggler (Richard Heinz) leads the singing as the revival begins.

Ma Allen and Mrs. Summey (Barbara Maines) discuss the birth of Barbara's witch-child.

"Barbara git redemption . . ." as her Pa, Preacher Haggler, and Marvin Hungins (Tam O'Connor) look on.

Tom Sawyer

Reverend Sprague (Jerry Eisenhower) comforts Aunt Polly (Nancy Holcomb), Mrs. Harper (Penny Gillespie), and The widow Douglas (Linda Brinton) on the death of their children.

Huck Finn (Roger Mongold) reflects on the murder he and Tom Sawyer have witnessed.

Thurber Stories Are Recreated

"...you can't mix merchandise and liquor." West Water (James Hulse) warns the bar girl (Shirley Golden) as "The Gentlemen Shoppers" come roaring into the scene.

"I know who you are — Robert Browning." Grant (Hulse) roars drunkenly at General Lee (John Bassett) in "If Grant Had Been Drinking at Appomattox."

"Get me out of this." I bowled "Get me out!" Lawrence Miller cries as he relates the tale "The Night the Bed Fell!"

Thurber (Hulse) holds his head in total resignation at the mess in "File and Forget."

"The Custom of Drinking while Buying" causes problems for the saleslady (Carolyn Farber) as she tries to cope with drunken shoppers (Barri Hodgkin and Dave Brown) and a tight salesman-ager (Hulse).

In 'Carnival'

"You are a booby . . ." the wife (Korol Tharp) tells the man (Barri Hodgin) when there is "A Unicorn in the Garden."

"Not so fast! You're driving too fast!" Mrs. Mitty (Carolyn Farber) scolds her henpecked husband, Walter Mitty (Hodgin).

Mitty the invincible faces a firing squad with undaunted courage as the German officer (John Bassett) expresses his admiration.

"My husband's seal will not juggle . . ." Miss Whittaker (Mary Beth McKinney) reads to the pet doctor (William Bradley) but he seems more interested in . . .

. . . The blonde assistant (Terry Lutz).

Mrs. Mullins (Linda Brinton) tempts Billy Bigelow (Mike Miller) by telling him the advantages of remaining single.

Carrie (Carolyn Hollman) and Mr. Snow (Jack Estes) dream of the time when they will have a family of their own.

For Five Nights

Julie Jordan, portrayed by Wendee Beam, falls in love with the carnival barker, Billy Bigelow.

Billy Bigelow looks forward to the birth of his child—hoping it will be a boy.

Julie sings of her love to the dying Billy.

Harold Whittlesey as Jigger (in stripped trousers) and men's chorus sing the Hornpipe Song.

Music and Drama Unite To Produce

"Do rich people know?" Amahl's mother (DeeAnn Decklever) wonders after she has tried to steal their gold.

"A cold fire place and a bed of straw are all I have to offer you." the mother tells the king (Jack Briggs) as Amahl (Dana Whitney) looks on.

'Amahl and the Night Visitors'

The shepherds and villagers leave after presenting the kings fruits and other presents.

Amahl's mother watches as Amahl leaves with the kings to present his gift to the child.

"Have you seen a child the color of wheat, the color of dawn?" Balthazar (Ken Bittiker) Melchior (Jack Briggs) and Kaspar (Frank Carlile) ask the mother.

Northwest Missourian

Jim Rash, Missourian photographer, adjusts the recently purchased enlarger in the darkroom.

Blundering his way around campus for the first few days, the beginning journalism student, full of questions and searching for the answers, discovers a way of college life.

He arrives at the Missourian office, questions fellow-students, and accepts his first newswriting assignment somewhat fearfully. The objectives of the newly-founded English-journalism major are to develop a self-reliant, poised individual who is able to attack any assignment and produce a creditable story.

One student this year exemplified the change from a cub to an ace reporter as she completed her studies for the new English-journalism major.

New phases of the curriculum include training in graphic arts through the industrial arts department and in business and advertising through the business department. The most recent innovation in the department included a three-hour course, "Organization and Supervision of School Publications," designed to prepare students to teach journalism.

Enrollment in all journalism classes for the first semester totaled 45 students. All students who enroll in one of the journalism sections gained actual experience in working on the Northwest Missourian. As each edition of the paper was published, each student was given insight on the evolution of an edition.

The entire journalism department presented an afternoon reception honoring United Nations news analyst Alexander Gabriel in November.

Plans to organize an honorary journalism fraternity have been initiated.

Sizing a picture at the Forum, Mrs. Eckert advises Eugene McCombs and Kay Weidenhaft about placing the picture base in the chase.

Mary Jo Jansen, Barbara Hardy, Regie Turnbull, and David Grimsley employ teamwork to fold Northwest Missourians in preparation for mailing.

On March 17th, KDLX Radio resumed broadcasting to the men's and women's residence halls at NWMSC. However, this time there was not the familiar hum and buzz at 560. The reason for this was the new equipment that KDLX had purchased during the 1967-68 academic year.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Ray Cushman, the new KDLX advisor, KDLX was able to obtain and exceed the goals set by the past members of the station.

The station improved its programming by adding folk, jazz, and classical music to the evening schedule. KDLX also enlarged its broadcasting day by broadcasting during the afternoon hours.

With this year of growth and improvement, KDLX has set new goals. It is anticipated that in the near future NWMSC will have a powerful FM radio station and closed circuit television facilities.

KDLX prepared a display for the organizational fair.

Alpha's Win Scholastic Trophy For Seventh Year

AΣA

At the Alpha's Triennial National Convention, Phi Phi Chapter was awarded a trophy for having had the highest scholastic average on campus for seven consecutive years.

In addition to their scholastic achievements, Alpha Sigma Alpha members actively participated in many aspects of campus life. Donna Merritt reigned as Homecoming Queen; Kathyne Seabaugh was American Royal queen candidate; and Jan Couch's original design was chosen for the '68 Tower cover.

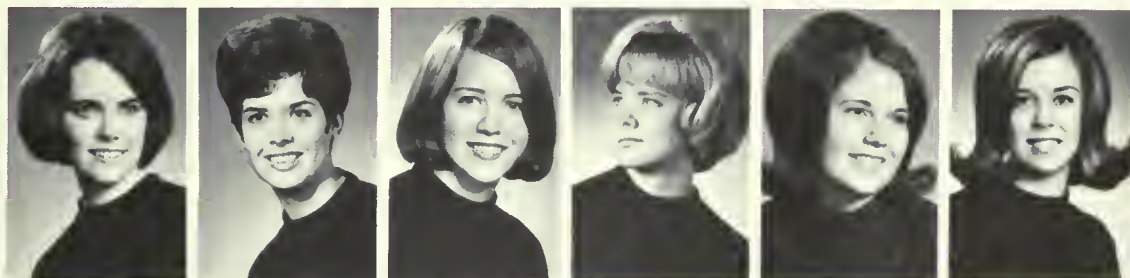

Annual social events included the Christmas party for orphans which is co-sponsored by ASA and its brothers of Tau Kappa Epsilon, the Founders' Day banquet, an informal dance, the spring formal, the seniors' banquet, and Parents' Day picnic. A spring retreat was also held one weekend this year.

Alphas were active in various college functions and organizations such as ACE, AHEA, AWS, Book Club, Embers, Cheerleaders, Daughters of Diana, Delta Psi Kappa, Kappa Delta Pi, Kappa Omicron Phi, PEM Club, SNEA, Alpha Mu Gamma, intramurals, student senate, Tower staff, Union Board, Who's Who, Young Democrats, Young Republicans, Gamma Sigma Sigma, and drama productions.

Delta Zetas Host State Day

One of the most exciting events for Delta Zeta this year was State Day when all the Delta Zeta chapters in Missouri came to NWMSC for workshops, sisterhood, and fun. Epsilon Rho played the hostess role with pride and honor.

A needed improvement came this year as the chapter room was completely refurnished to form a combined lounge and recreation room.

Epsilon Rho initiated a parents' club, the Colonnade Club, which sponsored a coke-tail party for the actives and alums on Homecoming day.

Homecoming was quite rewarding this year. Jeannie McCormick was one of the five Homecoming Queen finalists. The float, "Our America," placed second and the chapter received awards for house decorations, "We Don't Sphinx, We Know We'll Win," and skit, "Washington at Valley Forge."

Other Delta Zeta activities included: rush—"Delta Zeta Wants You," the theme for our prison rush party; Spring Formal; Founder's Day; and a Christmas dinner given by the Maryville alum chapter.

A few of Delta Zeta's philanthropic projects are Christmas gifts for the special education students at Horace Mann, sponsoring a patient at Carville Hospital, and sending clothing to the Navajo Indians.

Delta Zeta members are active in organizations on campus. They belong to and hold offices in People-to-People, SNEA, Book Club, TOWER Staff, Dialogue, AWS, Dorm Council, Senior Steering Committee, PEM Club, Intramural Council, Gymnastics Club, Daughters of Diana, Kallay Filleeans, Delta Psi Kappa, Union Board, Kappa Delta Pi, Kappa Omicron Phi, Newman Club, UCCF-Wesley, BSU, and ACE.

Phi Mu Wins House Decoration,

Members of Zeta Lambda chapter of Phi Mu fraternity were proud when Patsy Hollenbeck was chosen Miss Maryville in 1967 and was named first runner-up in the Miss Missouri pageant.

The Phi Mu Sweet Shoppe and Fashion Show attracted 15 new pledges who assisted in a successful homecoming for the fraternity. The Phi Mus won first place with their house decoration of a slot machine in "Victory Is No Gamble." They placed third with their "Alice in Victoryland" skit.

Cheri Jordan, president of the chapter, attended the National Phi Mu Conference at Purdue in Lafayette, Indiana, and discerned many new ideas for chapter improvement.

The Phi Mus' work in "The Ugly Man Contest" was rewarded by a silver tray for their contribution.

Cheri Jordan and Kathy Pierce, two of the varsity cheerleaders, helped bring honor to the college as they brought first place honors from the national competition in Mississippi.

Social activities included Pumpkin caroling at Halloween, Coffee House Party, Secret Santa Christmas Party, the Sadie Hawkins' Coketail Party, Soup and Steak Dinner, the Founder's Day Tea, the Family Picnic, the Spring Formal, and Mothers' Weekend.

The Phi Mus sent packages and wrote letters to a Marine division in Vietnam as their social service project.

Sigma Sigma Sigma began the 1967 fall semester with seven new initiates and 18 pledges.

Homecoming competition brought the Sigmas first place for their beauty float, "Monte Carlo," second place in the variety show with their skit, "Heaven," and third place for house decorations of Cape Kennedy with "Launch the Bears...Cats."

Gayle Bradfield, Miss Maryville for 1966, was one of the five finalists in the contest for Homecoming Queen.

Regional Meet was held at Walton House in Woodstock, Va. June 14-18. Attending the Meet as Alpha Epsilon's representatives were president, Norma Tibbetts, and vice-president, Sondra Simons.

Alpha Kappa Lambda Founds

Alpha Zeta of Alpha Kappa Lambda fraternity captured the Supremacy Trophy for overall Homecoming activities. Winning the Supremacy Trophy was backed by several outstanding honors. The fraternity received first place in the men's float division with its theme "Switzerland." Alpha Zeta took first place in the house decorations with the pony express rider in, "Deliver Us a Victory." A third place award was received in the Variety Show with a skit, "There's No Place Like Home."

Founding the Kallay Filleeans, Alpha Zeta's new women's auxiliary organization, was one of Alpha Zeta's achievements of the year.

Alpha Zeta sent six delegates to the National Leadership College at the University of Kansas. In October, representatives of Delta chapter attended the fall Barn Party. In December, the chapter welcomed three National Field Representatives for a week visitation.

Social Activities of the year included candle-light dinners with guest speakers, mixers with each sorority, Alumni Banquet, rush parties, Barn party, Thanksgiving Dance, Christmas Dance, Queen of Hearts Ball, Inferno Weekend, and the Founder's Day Picnic. Alpha Kappa Lambda also presented a Christmas party for the exceptional children of Horace Mann grade school.

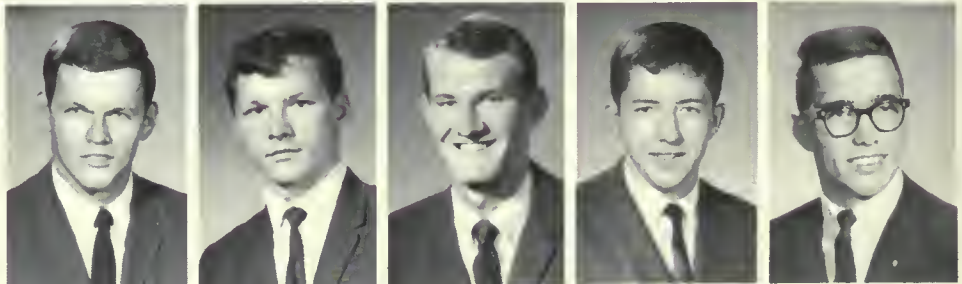

Campus activities and clubs that members of Alpha Kappa Lambda fraternity participate in are class offices, student senate, homecoming committees, co-chairman of the Variety Show, freshman orientation, Dialogue, Community Ambassador Commission, Men's Intramural Commission, varsity golf and wrestling, intramurals, American Chemical Society, Beta Beta Beta, Alpha Psi Omega, Pi Beta Alpha, Ag Club, religious, music, and drama groups.

Could this be a study break?

Kallay Filleeans

The Kallay Filleeans an auxiliary to Alpha Kappa Lambda Fraternity, is an undergraduate organization of women who are interested in the activities of AKL.

The Kappa Phi's, founded October 10, 1967 on this campus, were formed to assist the AKL's in all aspects of Greek life. Members help during rush week, at smokers, serve as hostesses during open house, at parties, and other social functions at the AKL house. They help to add a woman's touch to all social events. The women also help to orient the new pledges and serve as "pledge moms" to them.

The organization is an auxiliary working for the chapter, but they hold their own outside activities. Projects which the women have include their own rush parties for new membership, making favors for the Christmas party for the retarded children in Horace Mann School, hamburger suppers at the house, and help in organizing parties for the chapter.

The officers for the year include Esther Groesbeck, President; Sonja Neidt, Vice President; Michelle Orcutt, Recording Secretary; Jody Huffacker, Treasurer; Linda Spack, Social Chairman; and Linda Patterson, Rush Chairman. Sponsors for the organization are Mrs. Clara Peterson and Miss Lois Loveland.

Delta Sigs Build Parking Lot

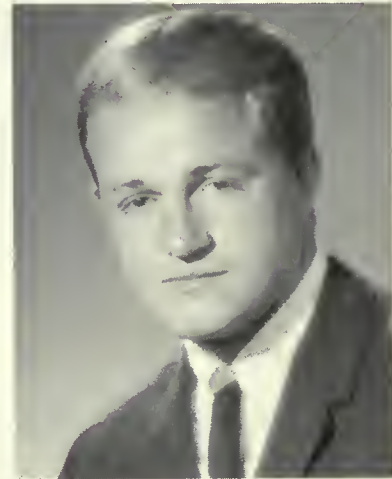

The men of Delta Sigma Phi began a rewarding year by making several improvements on their house. The study rooms have been remodeled, new carpeting has been installed, and the kitchen has been redesigned. A new parking lot has been built behind the house and at the present time a recreation room separate from the house is being completed.

Delta Sig alumni saw their brothers capture many honors in the 1967 Homecoming activities. The social events of the year included the "Sailor's Ball," "Monte Carlo Night," and the "Carnation Ball." The Delta Sigs used these dances and several mixers, house parties, and spaghetti suppers to add zest to campus activity.

The Delta Sigs were active in intramurals, as they competed in football, basketball, softball, tennis, swimming, wrestling, handball, and tug-of-war.

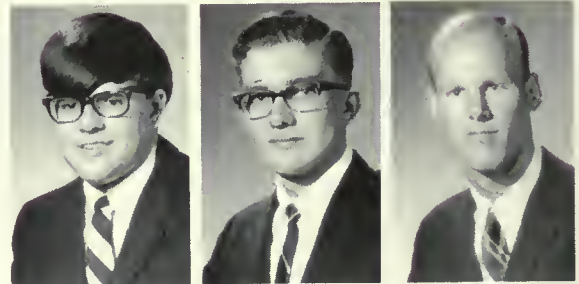

Members of Delta Sigma Phi were active in Senate, traffic court, Pi Beta Alpha, Kappa Delta Pi, Beta Beta Beta, Homecoming committees, People-to-People, SNEA, Book Club, and orientation leaders.

Sigma Tau Renovate House

Theta Chapter of Sigma Tau Gamma renovated their house during the past year. Many of the active members returned to campus early last fall to remodel the house. Among some of the major improvements were the painting of the outside of the house; tiling the study rooms, bathroom, and kitchen; and the painting of much of the inside of the house.

Sigma Tau Gamma members were active in such campus organizations as Union Board, Senate, and Blue Key. Some of the Sig Tau leaders on campus are John Price, president of Union Board, Ed Lambright, co-chairman of Homecoming, and Barry Monaghan, secretary of student body.

Besides these organizations, Theta is also active in intramurals, varsity athletics, and various departmental organizations.

On the social level, Sigma Tau Gamma held many mixers, rush parties, and their annual formal, the White Rose in the spring.

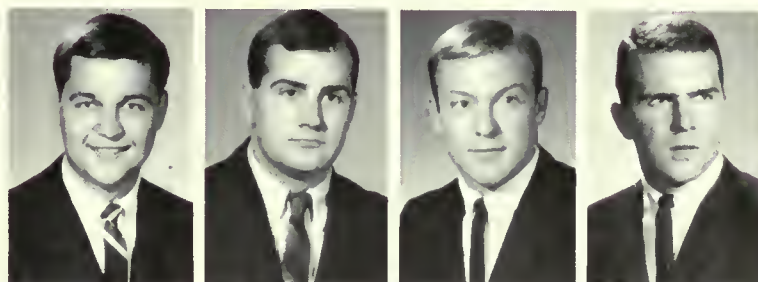

Officers who led the organization in the fall semester were Jim Johnson, president, and John Price, vice-president.

Phi Sigmas Win

Φ Σ Ε

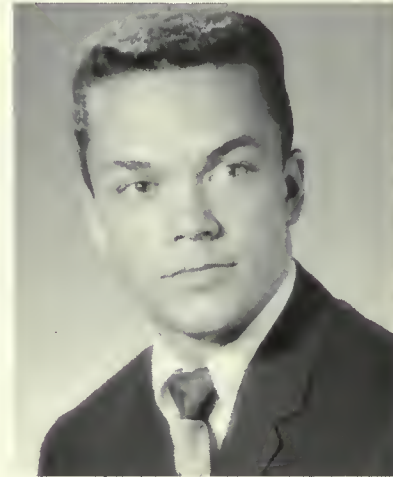

After suffering near disaster with the partial burning of their fraternity house, the men of Phi Sigma Epsilon remodeled and continued to lead many campus organizations. Remodeling consisted of new wiring, more adequate plumbing, and extensive redecorating. Several additions to the house are planned for this summer.

Nu chapter Phi Sigs were represented in the Student Senate, Union Board, football team, intramurals, music and drama groups, and many departmental groups. Tom Frank served as president of the student body and Paul Meyer was a captain of the football team.

In football intramurals the Zombies and Scuzzos took the first and third places in the inter-fraternity playoffs. It was the fourth consecutive year the Zombies captured the fraternity league. They also won the all-school championships for the second straight year.

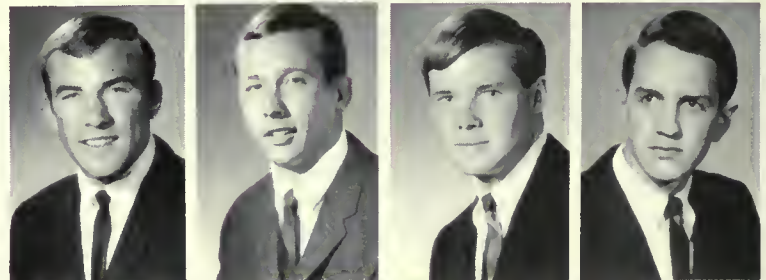

The outstanding social events for the year were the Rumble, Christmas Ball, and Orchid Ball. The Phi Sig Sweetheart and Phi Sig of the Year were named at the Spring formal, Orchid Ball. Other social events included house parties, mixers, and hayrides.

Officers for the year were James Beemer, president, and Tom Frank, vice-president.

TKE Members Attend

Approximately thirty members and pledges of Delta Nu Chapter of Tau Kappa Epsilon attended the Regional Leadership Conference in Kansas City. Marshall Dann represented Delta Nu at the Tau Kappa Epsilon International Conclave held at Grand Bahama Island, West End Bahamas last summer.

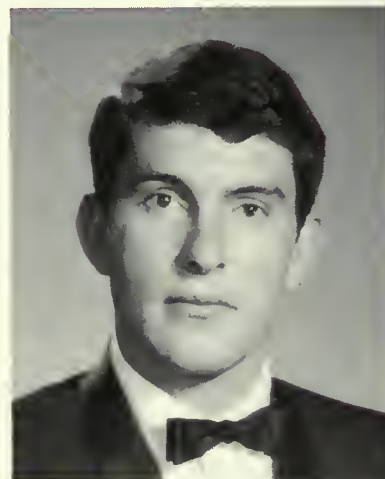

The school year began with preparations for rush and Homecoming. A successful alumni reception kicked off the drive for renewed strength in alumni relations.

In intramurals, Tekes came on strong in the initial contests trying to win intramural supremacy for the third straight year. Teke support in varsity football earned them the spirit trophy for the second consecutive year.

The traditional Garter Party, Orphan's Party, Christmas Formal, and the Red Carnation Ball helped round out a well-balanced social life.

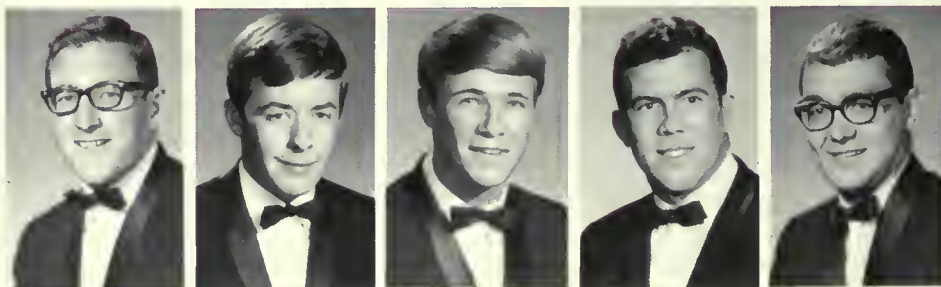

Members were active in Union Board, Blue Key, Student Senate, Homecoming committees, UCCF-Wesley Foundation, varsity basketball, swimming, baseball, and track.

Daughters of Diana

Daughters of Diana, founded April 19, 1965 on this campus, were established to act as sisters of TKE's and to assist with social events.

They have successfully fulfilled these goals and have continued to become a respected asset to TKE fraternity life. These girls have added grace and a womanly touch to the social events as well as to the interior decorations of the TKE house. Daughters of Diana assist in pledge orientation and function as "big sisters" to the aspiring neophytes.

Since their formation they have carried out many project goals, including making monogrammed tea towels and aprons for the kitchen, ironing shirts, typing papers, purchasing various household accessories, and contributing to the new housing fund.

Officers elected for the year were Hila Rankin, president, and Cindy Taylor, vice-president.

Gamma Sigma Presented

Alpha Gamma Chapter of Gamma Sigma Sigma was honored last summer by being presented with the Inter-Chapter Relations Award at its National Convention. The convention was sponsored by the Alpha Gamma Chapter on the NWMSC campus. The chapter was also honored by having Rochelle Burton receive the Outstanding Sister Award.

"Ring Down the Curtain of Ignorance," the national project for the following two years, concerns mental illness and retardation. In connection with this project, Alpha Gamma helped with the retarded class at Horace Mann.

Local campus and community projects included publishing the student-faculty directories, giving campus tours, selling Homecoming mums, selling tickets for the Kansas City Philharmonic Orchestra, Concert for the Jaycee Jaynes, sending materials to servicemen in Vietnam, helping with Tower pictures, ushering for the Variety Show, AWS Style Show, and plays, working for the local welfare agency, and adopting a Korean orphan.

Social events included a Founder's Day Tea, Alumnae Tea, Parents' Day, Christmas Banquet, and rush parties. Gamma Sigma Sigma also worked together with Alpha Phi Omega in having a Homecoming float and a spring formal.

The fall pledge class was named for Miss Barbara Palling, one of the organization's sponsors.

Members of Gamma Sigma Sigma were active in Tower Staff, Book Club, Kappa Delta Pi, SNEA, ACE, Dialogue, People to People, Student Affiliates of the American Chemical Society, PEM Club, Social Science Club, Northwest Missourian, AWS, AHEA, on Residence Halls Councils, on Homecoming Committees, and as residence hall counselors.

Alpha Phi Omega Continues to

The men of Alpha Phi Omega, the only national service fraternity on campus, once again used leadership, friendship, and service as their cardinal principles for the twenty-eighth consecutive year.

The highlight of the year was the annual "Ugly Man" contest sponsored to raise money for the Student Loan Fund. All money raised was matched 9-1 by the government. Other service projects by the fraternity included: Thanksgiving baskets for those who otherwise would not be able to enjoy a Thanksgiving feast, campus tours for newly registered freshmen and other interested parties that visited the campus, assisting handicapped students to and from classes, and checking coats at major campus social dances.

Other APO activities were operating concession stands at games and assisting with Homecoming activities.

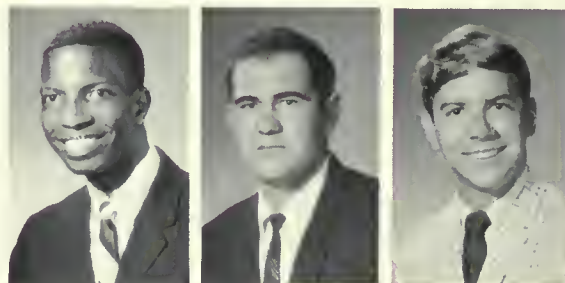

Social events included a fall mixer, a Christmas party, a spring formal, and several events with Gamma Sigma Sigma, as well as banquets at Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter.

The Sterling Surrey Marketing Club marked its first active season of campus activities. Membership in this junior chapter of the American Marketing Association is open to any business major or minor with the emphasis being placed with those students majoring in marketing.

This organization's purpose is to provide its members with new knowledge about marketing, communicate the best that is known about marketing, develop marketing manpower, and to stimulate the application of the best marketing knowledge available.

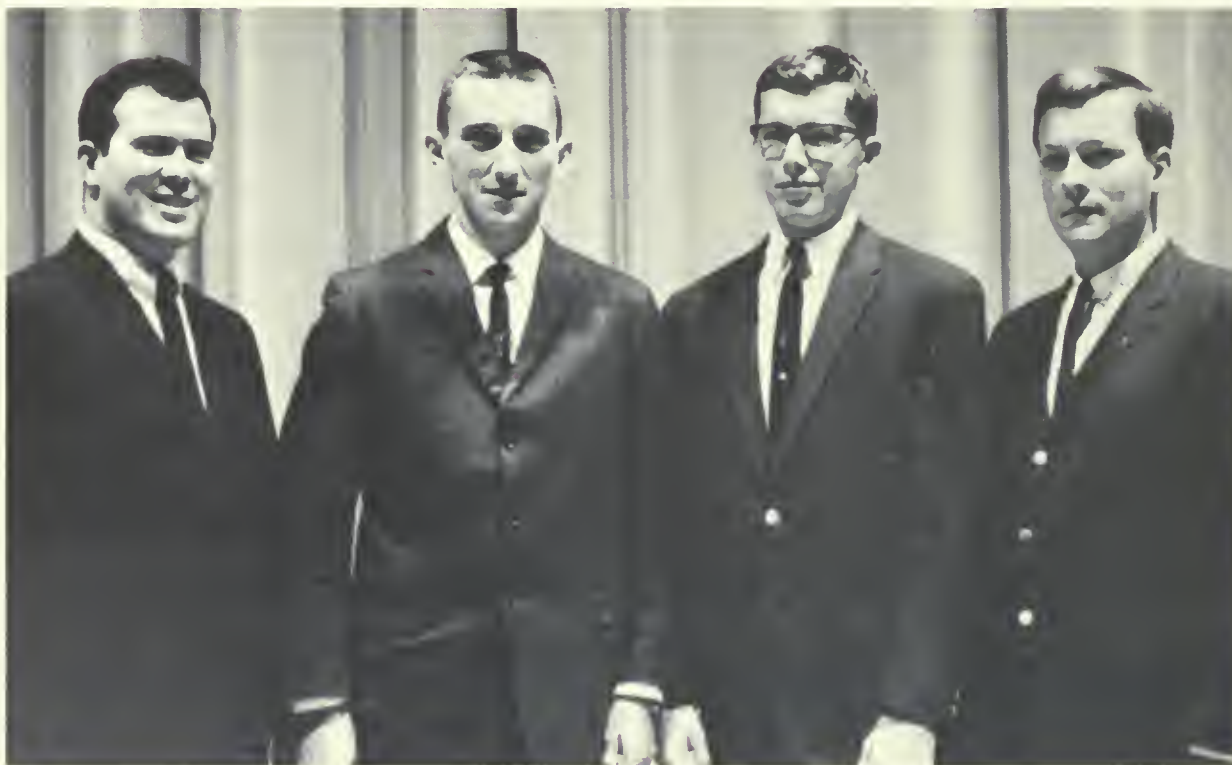

The club provided its members with information lectures presented by noted business leaders, current films stressing the future of marketing, and discussion periods involving marketing aspects. The business group attended the American Marketing Association's business recruiting program at Kansas City.

The second semester showed increased enrollment and participation by the students in the club's activities. This indicates substantial progress for continued success in the future.

With Mr. F. B. Houghton, Dr. William George, and Dr. Dennis Padgitt as sponsors, the Ag Club also sponsored livestock judging contests and members took part in various collegiate judging contests at Denver and Fort Worth.

The Ag Club entered clowns and a jalopy in the Homecoming Parade. A fall hayride, a picnic in the spring, and a Christmas party added social variety to the Ag Club. The Spring Ag Club Awards Banquet completes the year's activities.

Student NEA Purchases

The John Dewey chapter of the Student National Education Association under the leadership of local, district and state president, Russell McCampbell, and local, district, and state adviser, Dr. Wanda Walker, concluded a successful year.

In July, McCampbell attended the NEA Convention, the SNEA National Convention, TEPS Conference, and the Council of State Presidents in Minneapolis and St. Paul. Members also attended the Missouri State Teacher's Association and SNEA Convention in St. Louis, November 2-3, 1967. The officers and adviser attended the annual Officers' Workshop in Columbia in April, where Russell McCampbell concluded his term as President of the Missouri Student Education Association. Chapter members also hosted the District FTA-SNEA meeting in October, and the Thirteenth Annual Conference for FTA-SNEA in Northwest Missouri and Southwest Iowa on April 25, 1968.

Chapter activities included the acquisition of a desk through a group project of Gold Bond stamp collection, a "get acquainted" party which netted 75 new members, participation and the capture of first and third places in the open competition division for group clowns in the Homecoming Parade, a Valentine coffee honoring the faculty of NWMSC, and finally a tour of regional high schools.

Educational and entertaining programs included a panel of student teachers who shared their experiences with the group, a panel of high school students who discussed characteristics they liked most in their favorite teachers, and a panel of teachers who discussed some of the problems SNEA members may

The Student Wives Organization began the year with a Style Show. Topics concerning ideas about Christmas decorating, interior decorating and child discipline were presented at meetings. Members enjoyed a tour of the Home Management building and a Merle Norman Cosmetics demonstration.

Other activities included interest groups that met weekly. Interested Maryville residents have donated their time and talents teaching bridge, knitting, cake decorating, and exercises.

Annual activities included participation in the Homecoming house decoration. During Christmas there was a party for the children with games and Santa arrived with presents for everyone.

Adults enjoyed a winter party and in April a dinner dance was presented in honor of the graduating seniors.

Members enjoy themselves at the Valentine Party.

This year Town Girls' Association, organized for women living off-campus, decided to hold their bi-monthly meetings at the home of Mrs. Maxine Ferguson. Immediately plans were made for the organization's house display "Give 'Em Hell, Bearcats" for the 1967 Homecoming.

Program emphasis was geared to have members take an active part in various social events. Judy Smith represented TGA in the AWS annual style show. Linda Romig served as the religious emphasis representative and as a queen candidate for the Winter Festival. Diane Willson represented TGA at the National Region Three Convention in Dallas, Texas.

A procedure for collecting dues annually was established. TGA adopted a new constitution and changed their names for 1968-69 to Off-Campus Coeds.

The purpose of the local People-to-People Organization is to orient the students to other cultures, especially those represented on campus by the foreign students attending MSC. As a secondary goal, the students from the States try to become better acquainted with the foreign students themselves.

This year the club had many varied speakers. Shobha Mansukhani spoke on her homeland of India, Maria Doria gave insights to the life of Mexico, and Bob Foster told of his experiences while in Holland last summer.

With an ever increasing enrollment at MSC, G.D.I. has moved ahead in providing activities to make a more active social life for independent students on campus.

During Homecoming, G.D.I. placed second in the float competition, held a tie for first in house decorations, and placed fourth in the clown division.

Each year G.D.I. tries to perpetuate a new all-campus activity. Last year G.D.I. sponsored an art fair, "Gallery '67," and this year it sponsored a Winter Festival.

G.D.I. members are active in varsity and intramural sports, Homecoming committees, Student Senate, Dance Club, S.N.E.A., Student Leader groups, the MISSOURIAN, Pi Gamma Mu, and Book Club. Members participated in the G.D.I. Spring Picnic, Christmas Ball, Red Rose Formal and other informal parties.

The Social Science Club presented a series of programs and afforded opportunities to promote teacher-student association and discussion.

The social science majors and minors were given information on the department's comprehensive examination and other departmental policy. Advice was given to the members concerning the future—including teaching opportunities to do graduate work, the chances of scholarships, the possibilities of study abroad and the nature of government work.

One meeting was devoted to giving the members a demonstration of the inductive teaching technique, the program being given by fellow members.

Throughout the year, the club offered programs of controversial speakers and films as well as working at attempts to bring well-known personalities to the NWMSC campus.

The officers this year were Martin Peterson, president, and No'el Swaney, vice-president.

The Student Affiliates also had banquets and educational tours. Picnics were held in the fall and spring so that chemistry majors could become acquainted with their fellow students and the faculty. In December a trip was made to The Food and Drug Administration and Chem-agro Corporation in Kansas City was visited in the spring. The last meeting was highlighted by a banquet honoring the seniors and awards were presented to the outstanding freshman and senior chemist.

Living in Bern, the capital of Switzerland, presented a number of opportunities for my experiment group to gain a wide, varied and realistic picture of a country that is an ideal of many. Visits to the Parliament world renowned banles, major industries, and an interview with the Lord Mayor all contributed to our understanding of Swiss government and economics. Opportunities for exchanges of ideas with college students, mountain people, shopkeepers, and craftsmen, put us in contact with the heart of the nation, its people.

Our group leader, Miss Mary Ellen Joseph, who had been a Peace Corp worker in Africa, was as interesting as she was capable. We tried during the two months to lose our American identity and in turn associate and react to things as a Swiss. I found it to be a frustrating but a most successful way to identify with and learn about another people. Knowing the thrifty and serious side of the Swiss helped to explain why their currency hasn't devalued since its establishment. Their love of the out-of-doors and freedom is reflected in their enthusiasm for skiing and mountain climbing and the success at their neutral government.

My Experiment was hastened by the family Wielandt of Bern. Father is an architect and Mother, his secretary. They were two very creative and gracious people, whose energies were directed at making my stay valuable and enjoyable.

Doris, my 18-year-old Swiss sister, was in the middle of a beauty contest when I arrived, from which she received a large scholarship. She will graduate in April from architectural school and hopes to work with her Father.

My little sister, Ruthie, is sixteen and is studying to be a secretary. Ruthie spoke almost no English, but picked it up quickly. She has the simple philosophy, "I always look with happy eyes," which she felt more people should try.

Understanding other peoples and actually being able to see why they act as they do may be the only way for world peace, and I like to think that NWMSC has had a part in promoting international brotherhood.

Robert Foster Stays

Bob Foster

To describe my trip as NWMSC College Ambassador to the Netherlands during the summer of 1967 as wonderful, delightful, or tremendous would seem almost trivial. At times, it seemed quite difficult and strenuous. As an Ambassador whose country was escalating an unpopular war and facing the strife of racial disturbances in twenty-two major cities throughout the United States, it was a time of anxiety and self-questioning.

I immediately found that my relationship with the people of Holland was not so much of an international one, but that of a warm mutual respect, friendship, and love.

My family, the family D.J.M. Koek, accepted me into their home as a complete stranger and a foreigner. When I left the family two months later, I felt a part of that family, a fourth son to my Dutch mother and father.

My three brothers, Aremot, Arend, and Dick were as carefree and fun-loving as an American boy who is out of school for the summer. And, having a sister my own age was something I had to learn to adjust to! The two older brothers were twins, and during the winter months attended the community high school. Dick, the youngest member of the Koek family, was completing his grade school education. My sister, Margaret, began her third year at the University of Wageningen this past September. My Dutch mother was a most efficient housewife who daily hurried my father off to work near Amsterdam at Schiphol Airport. Mr. Koek served as an administrator in the cargo division of KLM Royal Dutch Airlines.

After five weeks of family life, our group of eleven U.S. students and many of our Dutch brothers and sisters left for Enkhuizen, a small village in the northern area of Holland. While there we enjoyed cycling and sailing along the coast of the North Sea, rode down the Rhine River and crossed the English Channel. After three exciting days of sightseeing in London, we returned to our families for a final goodbye.

The Experiment in International Living program has a two-way objective. It allows the visiting student to live with and observe his family while obtaining a general knowledge of the country and its people. By living with and learning about each other, a mutual feeling of understanding and respect develops for both parties involved.

Necessary to the completion of any task or process is energy—the power to work, move, and create. Without this energy, motivation cannot act, material cannot be worked, nor the process completed.

The establishment, building, and conserving of this power to move and create should be uppermost in the scheme of education.

Five Bearcats Selected For

Although the Bearcats finished the season with an unimpressive 3-6 record, Paul Meyer, Leon Muff, Tom Owen, Bob Leach, and Ed Wiskoski were chosen for the All-MIAA football team. Bob Leach was also named Little All-American. He set a new defensive record this season for MSC.

The Bearcats opened the season with a great defensive game against Arkansas A & M but were unable to score. After two more losses to William Jewell and Drake, spirits ran high in anticipation of the annual Hickory Stick game against Kirksville. The 'Cats had been unable to gain a victory on the Bulldog's field for 13 years, but they pulled from behind in the fourth quarter and scored in the closing seconds of the game to win 13-7.

Before the Homecoming game against Southwest Missouri State, there was still a hope that the Bearcats could contend for the conference title. But MSC's offense wasn't strong enough, and the crucial game was lost by only one point.

To wind up the season, the Bearcats lost a predicted victory to Central Missouri State, but did follow statistics by upsetting Rolla. Even though the won-lost record indicated an unsuccessful season, the Bearcats played some of the best defensive ball in the conference, and the All-MIAA individual ratings gave credit to the outstanding quality of football the Bearcats played.

MSC Grapplers Lose Top

This season held some disappointments as well as outstanding victories for the MSC grapplers. The schedule was considered to be one of the toughest in history.

Since its beginning in 1956, wrestling has been one of the most successful sports at MSC. Its history has produced several All-Americans and has developed many athletes into outstanding wrestlers and coaches. Two outstanding team records have been held through the years. One lasted from 1962 to February, 1966, during which MSC held a 42 consecutive winning record. Until this year, a second record of 33 consecutive home wins was in progress.

Returning matmen included All-Americans Paul Stehman and Bill Rex. Stehman held last year's MIAA title in his weight division and was rated fourth nationally. Other team members were Allan Borkowski; John (Corky) Crandall; Wayne Garcia; Stan Zeamer, who held the best freshman record in MSC history;

Rich Downing; Tom Paulsen; and Terry Hartley. Also adding to team strength as new members were Keith Burge, Pat Olheiser, Gary James, John Schropp, and Bill Mueller.

The season opened with the Bearcats winning their ninth consecutive Graceland College Tournament Championship Title. A week later MSC gained another championship title in its own Second Annual Invitational Tournament. Paul Stehman received the "Outstanding Wrestler Award" at the MSC tournament. Stan Zeamer, last year's Outstanding Wrestler; and Keith Burge, a freshman, also made good showings.

The toughest challenge on the Bearcat schedule was a quadrangular meet held at Golden, Colorado, where MSC wrestled against two university teams ranked nationally in the top fifteen and against the seventh ranked team in the college division. The Bearcats returned home holding third place position in the quadrangular. Borkowski in the heavyweight division scored the only title win for MSC.

Immediately after returning from Colorado, the Bearcats beat Hiram Scott and then dropped their first dual meet, 18-17, to the University of Missouri the following afternoon, but defeated Northeast Missouri State later in the day.

Following two more victories, MSC lost to Adams State and then revived with a win over Ft. Hays State. Their final dual match victory was an 18-17 win over the University of Nebraska with Borkowski determining the winning pin in the final match. The Bearcats closed their dual match season with a loss to Omaha University.

A bitter disappointment was realized by the Bearcats when they lost their MIAA Conference Title to Kirksville in the championship meet. Injuries previously incurred by some of the top Bearcat wrestlers entering the meet were a great detriment to MSC opposition.

Runners Outdistance Opponents Through Rainy Season

Many track men running in distance events in the spring ran on the cross-country team in the fall. Lynnard Phipps, Danny Reed, and Roger Stucki were the three returning lettermen for the team. David Parker, a transfer student, and several freshmen also participated in the cross-country events.

Although rainy weather hindered the season and caused meets to be cancelled or postponed, the team was undefeated with a 7-0 record. Roger Stucki and Charles Gilkison led the team by consistently outdistancing their opponents.

Three School Records Broken

Coach Earl Baker's prediction for the success of his team's track season was not too optimistic. But the Bearcats pulled through the season favorably, winning their dual and triangular meets but losing in MIAA conference competition.

During the season three new track records were established. Pete Hager, sophomore co-captain, broke Herchel Neil's 30-year-old 220-yard dash record and also broke his own school record for the 100-yard dash. Ken Kavanaugh broke the school's open mile record.

For the indoor track opener, the Bearcats won over Graceland capturing the majority of 1st, 2nd, and 3rd places. Again they completely dominated the meet when they defeated William Jewell. Baker's hopes became more optimistic with the approach of the MIAA Indoor Meet, but the 'Cats placed 5th.

In the outdoor season MSC came out on top in most of its dual and triangular meets. Howlett was the top point winner in the Tarkio-Clarinda triangular meet, and then Kavanaugh stole the scene in the Graceland meet. Pete Hager ran at top speed throughout the season. Meindersma, Frohm, Howlett, and Hager consistently placed high on the mile relay team. Although the team held their own in regular meets, they finished last in the conference meet.

With many promising freshmen on the team and with only Frohm, Meindersma, and Banning using up their eligibility this year, Coach Baker reports a favorable outlook for next year's team.

Biggest Thriller Of The Season

Six lettermen, Bob Nelson, Ken Sheridan, Roger Nelson, Don Sears, Ralph Gifford, and Gary Howren returned for another season on the MSC basketball squad. Bob Nelson and Sears were top scorers on last year's team. Three previous squad members, Curt Lantz, Gary Goodson, and Ron Petersen, also returned to boost the team. Coach Dick Buckridge stated that since the team was lacking in height, speed and quickness would be emphasized.

MSC won its seasonal opener with William Jewell, MCAU champs, and won two more games before they lost the next two. The team played some of its best ball over the Christmas holidays when it encountered its toughest competition; Springfield, defending MIAA champs, and Warrensburg. The Bearcats lost to Springfield but played a thriller against Warrensburg winning 67-66. In the Tarkio College Invitational Tournament held over the vacation, MSC defeated Peru by a large margin after trailing behind, but in the championship round the Bearcats lost to Tarkio, the host team.

The same won-lost pattern was followed over semester break as the Bearcats beat Southeast Missouri State and Rolla but lost to Southwest Missouri State and CMS.

Tension tightened as MSC entered into their final conference game against Kirksville. Both teams were trying to even their conference record from a 4-5 position. The Bearcats had already lost 56-67 to Kirksville in a poor game on the Bulldogs' own court. The Bearcats' challenge put the game into double overtime in this final conference thriller. With only three seconds remaining in the fourth quarter, a shot went up, missed, but was rebounded and tipped in on the buzzer to tie 69-69. In the first overtime with again only three seconds left, Petersen scored two and brought the score up to 73-73. In the second overtime, two Bearcat starters, Petersen and Howren, fouled out handicapping MSC shooting. Kirksville capitalized on their advantage and pulled ahead to end the game with an eleven-point lead.

After winning three meets in a row, MSC suffered its first defeat to Kirksville with J.B. Watsabaugh winning to remain undefeated and with Larry Mairano also holding a low score. The MSC golfers went on to beat Central Missouri State, Midwestern, and William Jewell thus boosting their record to 10-1. In the Warrensburg meet, Watsabaugh remained undefeated by winning his 11th consecutive match.

The team had hoped to improve last year's 5th place standing in the MIAA Conference, but in the conference matches scheduled May 11-13, they finished with a 6th place rating.

Coach Burton Richey's optimistic outlook for his team's season performance wasn't far off base as the 'Cats crowded out Kirksville and Warrensburg to gain the MIAA Northern Conference Championship.

Ten returning lettermen gave Richey experienced players and a good reason to expect a successful season. Thirty-one athletes made the team. Of the 11 pitchers, Scott Kurtz, Don Orlowski, Vic Mitchell, and Don Sears were at the top, hurling winning games for the team. Don Sears, a freshman from Des Moines, was a frequent headliner with his adept ability. An all-returning infield was shortstopped by Mike Kurtz with Wayne Vierk guarding second and Joe Spinello on third. Don Hicks and Lou Mooney took turns on first. The batting division was also strong with Don Hicks, Bob Nelson, Lou Mooney, Dave Ross, and Joe Spinello being the top five sluggers.

Rainy weather menaced the season with postponements and cancellations, but the Bearcats still managed an impressive record. They beat Peru in an opening double-header and continued winning until they dropped a game to Creighton University. Another game was lost to Warrensburg in the Northern Conference playoff but MSC won the necessary two out of three games to gain the title. In the State Conference Championship games, the Bearcats lost two out of three to Cape Girardeau.

Tennis Team

John Braden returns for a point.

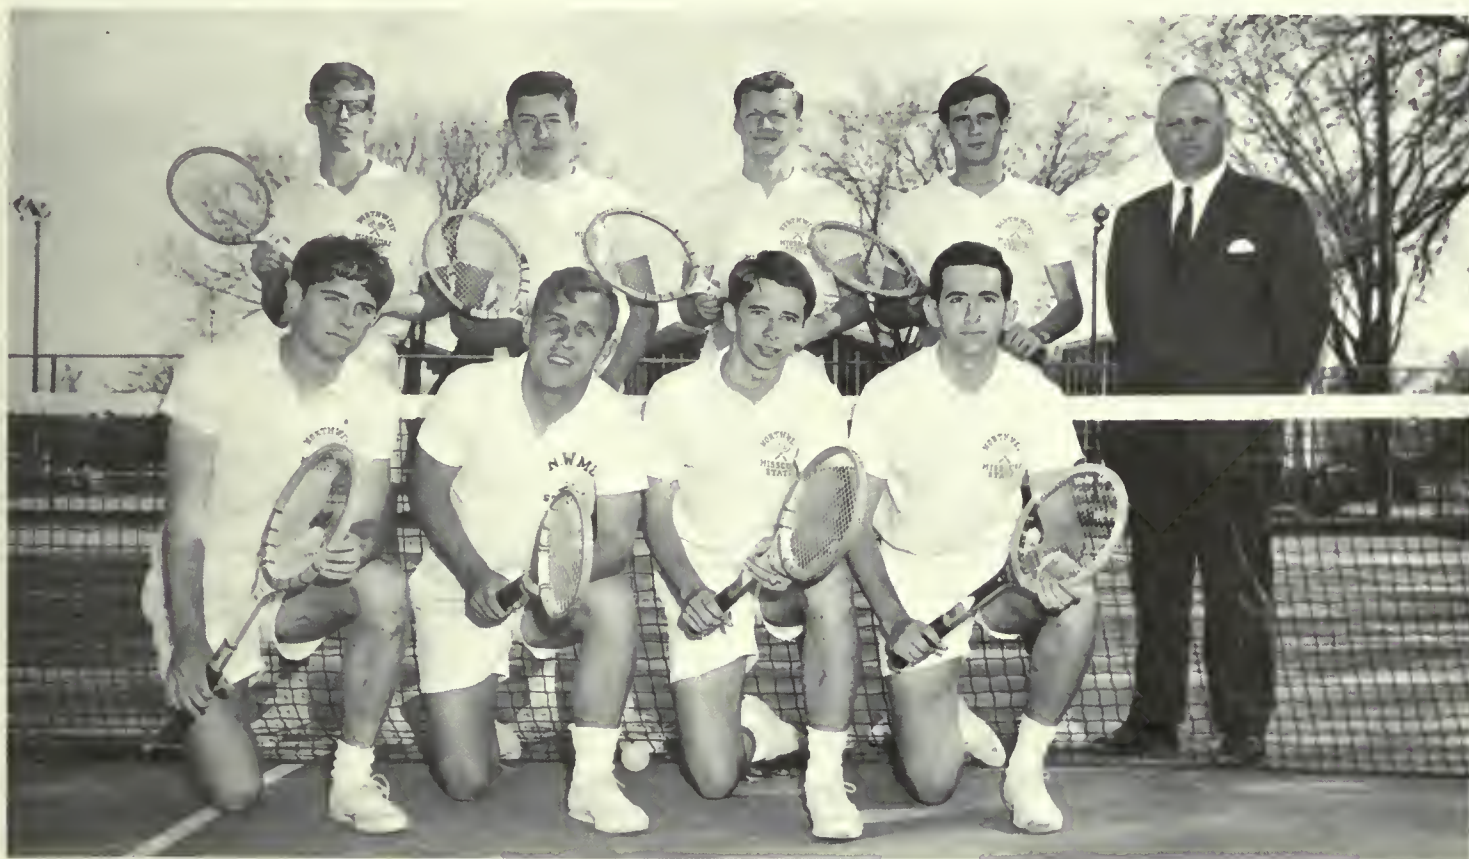

George Varchola returns the ball with ease.

Finishes with 8-3 Record

Coach Robert Gregory lead his players to even more victories this season with George Varchola as the highest scorer. Robert and Richard Schilling maintained their usual high scores and Lynn Manhart proved his abilities as a new man on the team.

The MCS netters placed fourth in the MIAA Conference Tournament to keep up to par with last year. Each member worked actively to support the team to help make it a successful season.

MIAA rating—fourth

“Great Front-Line Strength but a Lack of Depth”

Coach Lewis Dyche summed up his swimming team as having “great front-line strength but a lack of depth.” The MSC tankers, entering the season with an MIAA third place rating from last year, returned with six lettermen, Randy Hansen, Steve Conner, Jerry Peirce, Mark Thomas, Bob Puck, and Paul Fields. Other squadmen were Fred Kester, Francis Berkemeier, and Mike Cain plus several newcomers to the team.

The tankers lost their first two meets and then defeated Park College, Springfield, and William Jewel for three consecutive wins. Two consecutive losses followed, MSC yielding to a strong Wayne State opposition and also to defending MIAA champs, Central Missouri State.

In the MIAA Conference Meet, MSC hoped to be a strong contender for the title, but Central Missouri State “just ran away with it” Dyche remarked. Randy Hansen captured first place in the 50-yard freestyle and the other MSC tankers performed reasonably well in all competition. The Bearcats competed against Springfield in the battle for second place but ended up with a third place position in the conference.

With all but one swimmer returning next year, the team holds a bright outlook for the future.

Mark Thomas is one of the outstanding backstrokers in the conference.

Fred Kester, distance man for the team, strokes in the 500-yard freestyle.

Hansen is an all-round swimmer who won the 50-yard freestyle in the conference meet.

Paul Fields, the only senior on the team, competes both in butterfly and freestyle.

Men's Intramurals Provide Activity for Non-Varsity Teams

Some teams even provide their own cheerleaders.

MSC offers a wide variety of intramural sports for Greek and independent men who are not members of varsity teams. Flag football, tug of war, pool, and wrestling dominate the fall semester. Intramural basketball and swimming begin after Christmas vacation.

Through team organization and cooperation, these sports help build good character and sportsmanship of MSC athletes.

A great block for the ball carrier.

Could it be the ghost of intramurals in the post?

A questionable moment of who will get his hands on the ball first.

Necessary to the formation of any complete, able individual is spiritual deliberation, searching of one's inner self to devise and understand the why of existence.

Without this probing for reasons, all else in life, activities and values, will be meaningless. Without this search, maturity can never be attained.

RLC Promotes 'New Morality' Study

How to further the student's interest in an up-to-date religion on campus has been the main theme of the Religious Life Council. The Council this year has strived to provide the students with various lectures, dramas, and even Happenings to promote religious participation. The Council also organized the Thanksgiving Convocation and Easter Service. This year, the Easter Service was arranged differently and in a modern fashion so as to speak directly to the student.

Greg Watkins directs the Baptist Student Union choir.

During the Thanksgiving Vacation, the BSU sent ten of the sixteen International Students enrolled at MSC to Missouri Baptist's State Wide Conference for International Students. The BSU choir, composed of thirty voices and under the direction of Greg Watkins, sang in eight different churches in Northwest Missouri.

Other activities included work days, fourth place winning of Homecoming House Decorations contest portraying "Valley Forge," Bible study weekly, prayer breakfasts, discussion groups and a semi-formal spring banquet. Twelve members of the group attended the state BSU Convention in Jefferson City, Missouri, and six attended the Southwide Baptist Student Week in New Mexico. Money received from various activities during the year amounted to a satisfactory amount which was given to missions.

UCCF-Wesley

Alan Pruitt tells about UCCF-Wesley at the Organizational Fair.

Ecumenicity was the theme of the UCCF-Wesley Fellowship this year. Cooperating with the Newman Center, Catholic Students organization, UCCF-Wesley participated in homecoming with themes of the joint float and house decorations being The Wizard of Oz and The Arch of St. Louis, respectively.

Other activities concerning the two groups were "University Concern" seminars, several programs, and parties. As an individual group UCCF-Wesley continued the regular program of Sunday mornings Forums and Sunday evening supper. Topics of the supper discussions ranged from the "Student's Involvement in Society and The Campus" to seminars on sex and marriage. A Wednesday night Vespers program was continued under Rev. Ron Roemmich, newly-appointed campus minister.

Officers for the year included Regie Turnbull, president; Alan Pruitt, vice president; Beverly Beeks, secretary, and Amy Bradfield, treasurer.

Delicious meals are always served at Sunday suppers.

Newman Center

Conception students put on a folk mass for Newman students.

As the arch symbolizes the connection of the two pages, it also symbolizes the ecumenical cooperation between Newman Center and UCCF-Wesley, a protestant organization.

Under the guidance of Father Tom Wiederholt, Newman more than doubled its attendance at masses and secular programs. The highlight of the fall semester was a "Happening" staged by Conception Abbey students with candles, balloons, and psychedelic effects. Thursday evenings dealt with more secular subjects such as premarital sex, racial problems, and drugs.

Christmas caroling turned into a surprise party for Father Tom as he left for the Vatican and Europe over Christmas. Despite the destruction of some of the interior by a fire, Newman members continued to attend regularly. Tom Schneider, as president, worked with Father Tom to make Newman more relevant to the college student.

Council members of Newman include: Father Tom Wiederholt, Tom Schneider, Carol Winger, Paul Derks, and Janice Wilmes.

Father Tom administers communion to one of the guitar players at morning Mass.

One of Newman's features is outside Mass held each fall and spring when the weather is good.

Liahona Participates in Four Areas

The activities for the Liahona Fellowship of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints were planned around the four main areas of recreation, service, study, and worship.

The group enjoyed such social events as a fall hay ride, taffey pull, trip to Conception Abbey, trip to Independence, Mo. to hear Handel's "Messiah," Christmas caroling party, and a spring picnic. Other projects which the students participated in included a Christmas program, Liahona choir, worship services, and other service projects for the local congregation.

Members plan out the year's busy schedule.
